DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claims 1-13 are allowable because prior art does not show alone or in combination along with the limitations of the independent claims such as a first and second semiconductor substrate, a first semiconductor element formed in opposite surface of first substrate and comprised of first semiconductor circuit and first electrode, a second semiconductor element formed in opposite surface of second substrate and comprised of second circuit and second electrode, a first wiring conductor formed of electrically conductive material and interposed between first and second electrode and a through electrode extending through first and second substrate and connected to the first and second electrode through the medium of first wiring conductor layer.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
